- To stimulate teaching, research and reflection activities in the field of European integration studies
- To support the existence of an appropriate range of institutions and associations focusing on issues relating to European integration and on education and training in a European perspective

Operational objectives

- To stimulate excellence in teaching, research and reflection in European integration studies in higher education institutions within and outside the Community
- To enhance knowledge and awareness among specialists academics and among European citizens generally of issues relating to European integration
- To support key European institutions dealing with issues relating to European integration
- To support the existence of high-quality European associations and institutions active in the fields of education and training

Who can participate?

- Higher education institutions within and outside the Community as recognised within their own countries
- Associations of professors and researchers concerned with the study of the European integration process within and outside the Community
- European Associations active at European level in education and training

What Types of Activity?

The following actions are supported by the 'Jean Monnet Programme':

Key activity 1: Support for teaching, research and reflection on European integration at the level of higher education institutions world-wide (Jean Monnet Action):

- Unilateral projects, which may include:
 - Jean Monnet Chairs, centres of excellence and teaching modules
 - Associations of professors, other teachers in higher education, and researchers specialising in European integration

- Support for researchers deepening their research at a host university in another country (not available in 2009)
- Information and research activities relating to the Community with the aim of promoting discussion, reflection and knowledge about the process of European integration
- Multilateral projects and networks which may include support for the establishment of multilateral research groups in the field of European integration.

Key activity 2: Operating grants to support certain operational and administrative costs of the following institutions pursuing an aim of European interest:

- The College of Europe (Bruges and Natolin campuses)
- The European University Institute (Florence)
- The European Institute of Public Administration (Maastricht)
- The Academy of European Law (Trier)
- The European Agency for Development in Special Needs Education (Odense)
